GLDC minutes July 2008

The meeting was called to order by Diane Krajicek. It was the club picnic night and 14 members were present. All appeared to have a great time in the super weather with lots of really yummy food supplied by all the attending members and thanks to the club for paying for the hamburgers and chicken!

Treasurer's report: Current balance checking $2,260.84
Current balance savings $2,737.34
2 membership renewals
Total of 54 members, the new list will be sent out by Pam Shipley

OLD BUSINESS

Lucas County Fair, July 24th. Call Crystal Young or Diane Krajicek to get details to volunteer to help set up the arena, it does not take long and you will be thanked profusely!

4H medals. Diane Krajicek has taken care of this.

GLDC Schooling Show, August 2nd. Call Crystal Young to volunteer to help out on the day of the show when you are not riding. She needs ring stewards. You can announce who is going in and open the gate. It's not hard. Please call to help out. There are sponsor forms available if you think you know of a business who would like to sponsor your club show...like your trainer...vet...farrier...mother...father...aunt...uncle... Closing date for entry's is July 30th. Details and entry forms are on the web site.

Ride a Test in September at Joan Kamm's farm. Pam Shipley is contacting Joan to find out how much the stalls will be. The rides will be assigned times. Joan does not have much room to park trailers, therefore, you will need to come in, relax, get ready, ride, relax and leave so that other trailers can come in. Of course, come back without your trailer and watch everyone else. Pam is having Sue Hughes as our judge/evaluator. This will be a valuable experience, don't miss it! Details are on the web site.

October Fundraiser Trails for Triumph, October 5th at Harry Hughes. Details and entry and other information is on the web site. There will be a costumed horse and rider judging, (you don't have to decorate, but if you want to you will be cool!), fun obstacle course, clinician presentation, horse apple bobbing contest, Wyldewood Tack Trailer on premises all day, a custom embroider on premises (get a cool custom shirt), a custom sign maker, also you get great stuff with your entry. Much more info and entry form and sponsor form to raise as much as you can from friends is on the web site. All tax deductible!! We will have a gourmet bagged lunch that you can take with you in the park and ride all day. All of the event activities will take place before you leave to ride in the park. Give Ginger Post a call if you have any questions 419-832-1040.

NEW BUSINESS

An idea was raised to have a summer rider dressage camp, similar to what the Flatlanders have for their members and the Midwest group has. Pam Shipley and Ginger Post are pursuing and will update as more information comes in.

The August show will take the place of our next meeting.
